Experience

○ TAPCLONE 2022(Present)

MERN STACK DEVELOPER

Tapclone is a startup company which provides digital marketing and web development services. I worked here as a senior MERN stack developer and had the opportunity to work on two large e-commerce projects. Among the projects I worked on was thepaaki.com, an e-commerce site for clothing, which I made both on the frontend and in the backend. I implemented functionalities such as wholesaler, retailer, payment integration, wholesaler wallet, Delivery agent management and Deal of the day . My other project was at Klothonline.com, where I worked on some updates.
